NATIONAL REPUBLICAN TICKET.

For President,
ULYSSES S. GRANT,
OF ILLINOIS.
For Vice President,
HENRY WILSON,
OF MASSACHUSETTS.
REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.
For Governor,
HON. A. A. FREEMAN,
For Congress at Large,
HON. HORACE MAYNARD.
For Congress—Second District,
J. M. THORNBURGH.

Electors at Large,
A. J. RICKS, of Knox.
JOHN TRIMBLE, of Davidson.
ARCHIE M. HUGHES, of Maury.

FOR THE CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICTS:
I. FERDINAND S. SINGLETARY, of Carter.
II. HENRY B. GIBSON, of Campbell.
III. JOHN W. RAMSEY, of Bradley.
IV. WM. H. WISNER, of Bedford.
V. RICHARD S. TUTHILL, of Davidson.
VI. JESSE B. FRIERSON, of Maury.
VII. GEO. W. SHIPMAN, of McNairy.
VIII. WM. F. POSTON, of Crockett.
IX. HENRY G. SMITH, of Shelby.

THE Philadelphia Post, bought by the Greeleyites at the beginning of the campaign, has suspended. It died of too much bragging and a "ground swell." A good many more will go the same way after November.

THE Chattanooga Times is either very bad in its geography or else has so far given up the November contest as to forget who its candidates are. In its proposed ticket for which it says "all Democrats should vote" it has for Vice President B. Gratz Brown, of Wisconsin. Wake up Times.

THE workingmen in many of the Congressional districts North are uniting upon special friends to represent them in the next Congress. The idea of the workingmen of Knoxville in putting forward Col. Thornburgh seems to have spread over the district. Thornburgh will poll the vote of this large and influential class throughout the district. His Knoxville support of workingmen will surpass any ever before given to any candidate. Let them see to it, that everything is done to demonstrate the value of their support. Let it be shown that the support of this class in Knoxville is so much that the champions of the workingmen's interests will be more numerous in our halls of legislation.

THE "Military Ring" is after Andy, as appears from the following letter from a Rogersville correspondent to the Memphis Avalanche concerning the gubernatorial debate as follows:

The first thirty minutes of Governor Brown's speech, however, were badly put in. They were exclusively a covert attack upon ex-President Johnson, which he might, for his own good, have left off, but it was gratifying, indeed, to the bitter and proscriptive Cheatnam men of our county. Governor Brown did ex-President Johnson no harm, but himself no good. I heard several of the most substantial conservative men of the county proclaim that they would not vote for him for the simple reason that they considered his attack unwarranted, out of time and out of the line of duty, as a candidate of our party for Governor.

Who will care for Greeley now?
Washington Social to the New York Times.

A gentleman who arrived here to-day from Ohio and Indiana says that the belief is very current in those States among leading Republicans that a remarkable change in the course of the New York Tribune may soon be looked for, if not before the Presidential election, then immediately afterward. One of these reports, based upon the statement of a gentleman who conversed with a Tribune manager less than two weeks ago, is that upon Greeley's defeat they will instantly change front, throw Greeley and Reid overboard, and tender the management of the Tribune to Hon. Schuyler Colfax, for the purpose of saving the influence of their weekly paper, the subscriptions to which mostly expire within the next four months, and three-fourths of which they will certainly lose, unless some change like this is made. Mr. Greeley is known to contemplate retiring from journalism, whether elected or not; and upon being consoled with by a friend upon the result of Tuesday's elections, is said to have remarked that it would give him the long sought for opportunity of completing his literary labors.

"Go West, Young Man."
Nast's caricature of Whitelaw Reid in the editorial chair of the Tribune, telling Greeley to "Go West, Young Man," when the latter applied for his old post as chief of the Tribune, has been widely appreciated. A correspondent telling of the scenes in New York on election night, tells this story:

Vast crowds surged up and down Broadway, visiting the various newspaper bulletins, and betwixt the most feverish anxiety. In front of the Times office stood a very tall individual, with a most terrific pair of lungs. Every time a new bulletin was posted he would call for three cheers for Grant, and after they were given, then exclaim, "Go west!" in thunder tones, which were heard blocks away. Of course roars of laughter always followed. Now "Go West" is heard on every hand, and the words have become a slang phrase, as much so as "Shoo fly" ever was. Now if one declines an invitation to imbibe at the bar, instead of saying "No, I thank you," he exclaims, "Go West, young man!" If a person comes tearing into the ferry-house just as the boat has left, his friends on board scream out to him, "Go West, young man!" If one asks a companion for a chew of the royal weed, and the latter has none, he replies, "Go West, young man!" In short, it is "Go West" here, "Go West" there, "Go West" everywhere.

FROM THE GIANTS.

CLARKSVILLE, TENN., Oct. 14, 1872.
EDITORS CHRONICLE: I will make an effort in my way of describing our reception of the Hon. Horace Maynard to-day. He was met at the depot by the Grant and Wilson Club Committee, and hundreds of others thronged around to get sight of the distinguished speaker. The fine carriage of S. D. W. Brandon was present awaiting his arrival, and the colored brass band, in a beautiful band wagon, drawn by a pair of grays, headed the procession. The stars and stripes waved over the band wagon, and the band discoursed sweet strains of music while they marched to the Southern Hotel. There he was met by many of his old friends, and the best of feeling prevailed. One hour for refreshments.
At 11 o'clock, the time set for speaking, the Honorable gentleman made his appearance and was seated in the carriage as before. The band headed the procession, and hundreds of his constituents fell in line in good order and marched to the place of speaking. Great cheering and enthusiasm prevailed. Mr. Maynard spoke first. Great cheering by his friends at his appearance on the stand, then all was quiet and the best of order prevailed. His speech was the ablest ever delivered in our city. He made a good impression upon the Democrats, and many will vote for him on the day of election. The Republicans are well organized and very enthusiastic, and are determined to poll the full vote on the 5th of November.

Coming Over to "Hiram."
The New York Times of the 16th, says: A grand ratification meeting, under the auspices of the Independent Democratic Grant Club of the Twelfth Ward, was held last night at Harlem Hall. One hundred and twenty-fifth street, to endorse the entire Republican national and State tickets. Col. F. S. Lambert, a life-long Democrat, in an eloquent address, gave his reasons for supporting Gen. Grant and the whole Republican ticket in preference to the mongrel ticket, which carried Horace Greeley at its head. He, as well as thousands of other Democrats, would show those men who had made that base and infamous bargain at Baltimore, that they would not vote for the man who said that all the convict prisons of the country were filled by Democrats. Speeches were also delivered by Gen. Wm. H. Anthon and others.

THE German Greeley papers boasted that the 8th of October would be a "German day" because the Germans would rescue power from the Republican party. To this the Illinois Staats Zeitung says:

Yes! the 8th of October was a "German day," but not as the German "Liberals" imagined, a day of German obedience to German demagogism, but rather a day of German fidelity to principles and convictions, and German independence.

In this sense the 5th of November will, in a much greater degree, be a German day.

DR. CARPENTER,

136 MULBERRY STREET, NEWARK, N. J.

Is now treating successfully

Consumption, Bronchitis, and all diseases of the Throat and Lungs, with his Compound Medicated Inhalations, Concentrated Food, and Cough Syrup.

During the past ten years Dr. Carpenter has treated and cured thousands of cases of the above named diseases, and has now in his possession certificates of cures from every part of the country. The Inhalation is breathed directly into the lungs, soothing and healing over all inflamed surfaces, entering into the blood, it imparts vitality as it permeates to every part of the system. The sensation is not unpleasant, and the first inhalation often gives very decided relief, particularly when there is much difficulty of breathing. Under the influence of my remedies, the cough soon grows easier, the night sweats cease, the hectic flush vanishes, and with improving digestion the patient rapidly gains strength, and health is again within his grasp.

The Concentrated Food rapidly builds up the most debilitated patient, presenting to the stomach food already to be assimilated and made into good, rich, healthy nourishment.

The Cough Syrup is to be taken at night to alleviate the cough and enable the patient to obtain sleep. Full directions accompany each box of my remedies, which consists of:

One Inhaler; One Bottle of Alternative Inhalant; One Bottle of Soothing Febrifuge Inhalant; One Bottle of Anti-Hemorrhagic Inhalant; One Bottle Concentrated Food; One Bottle of Cough Syrup.

Price of Box containing remedies to last one month, $10; two months, $18; three months, $25. Sent to any address C. O. D. Pamphlets containing large list of patients cured sent free. Letters of inquiry must contain one dollar to insure answer. Address, A. H. CARPENTER, M.D., Newark, N. J.

Dr. CARPENTER'S CATARRH REMEDY will give immediate relief, and will effect a permanent cure in from one to three months. Price of remedy to last one month, $5; two months, $8; three months, $10. Cancer in all its forms successfully treated. Send for list of patients cured, to A. H. CARPENTER, M.D., Newark, N. J. July 26-41m

Patent Paint.

BRADLEY'S

PATENT ENAMEL PAINT.

THESE Paints are composed of the Purest and best materials known to painters; the principal ingredients being Pure White Lead, Zinc and Linseed Oil, which are made to unite in a homogeneous mass, by the addition of other materials, which add greatly to the durability, elasticity, beauty and strength of the Paint. The whole are chemically combined so forming a new compound which dries upon the surface and adheres firmly to it, forming a smooth, glossy, firm, elastic, beautiful and durable Paint. The Oil, which is the real life of the Paint, cannot leave it and is absorbed by the substance to which it is applied, as it does in paints mixed in the ordinary way, thus leaving the pigments dry and chalky, to wash and run off in a few months. This Paint is unaffected by changes of weather; is perfectly impervious to the action of water; is well adapted to all classes of work, and is in every way a better Paint for either inside or outside work, or best painting than any other Paint known to the trade, and will last at least three times as long as the best Lead or Oil, mixed in the ordinary way. These Paints are READY FOR USE; are easily applied by any one; require no mixing, stirring, or additions of dryers. 1 Gallon will cover 20 square yards, 2 cent.

Full satisfaction guaranteed to customers. Sold by the gallon, keg and barrel. Orders attended to promptly. Specimens and price list furnished gratis.
